Wild Weather
After the weekend’s weather we experienced a few hiccups yesterday. The trees and damage to the cricket needs will be assessed under insurance. All of the students have been instructed not to go near the damaged trees and I remind everyone not to enter the school outside school hours while this is the situation.

The newsletter is also a day late as we had no electricity or phones for the majority of the day. All of the students coped really well with the heat and I would like to thank them for the consistent hard work.

Year 6 Farewell
This Wednesday night the staff and Year 6 along with their families will be celebrating their final year of Primary school. It is with pride we farewell two wonderful students Andrew and Nikola and wish them all the very best at high school.

Bunning’s BBQ
A very big thank you to Therese, Fiona, Scott and Al for giving up their Sunday to run the Bunning’s BBQ for the school. It’s been a busy time of the year and we appreciate the commitment to the school.
Expectations
As we are nearing the end of term I am needing to remind all students about our school rules of Care for Yourself, Care for Others and Care for Learning. These expectations are continually reinforced in a positive way in every aspect of schooling. At this time of year when we are generally busier, the weather is hotter, we are involved in many extra events at school and home and after a long year we find ourselves becoming tired. This is all very understandable but can result in the children being less tolerant and not displaying their usual resilience in regular situations. Unfortunately certain behaviour may result in students missing out on our last day celebrations. We will continue to support everyone and will continue to have high expectations of our amazing students and I thank you for your support in reminding the children of these expectations. Please remember you can contact the school if you are concerned about any situation and we will make a time to see you.

End of Year Christmas Concert
